“Baby Panthers” Compete in National AYF Cheer Competition

The Village Football Association would like to congratulate the “Baby Panther” Cheer Squad, consisting of Jamila and Alyssa Davis, Ryle Wood, Trinity Moreland, Kelsey Bird, Gracie Banning, Audrey Calhoun and Mia Duncan, for their participation in the National AYF Cheer Competition that was held on 12/11 in Orlando, FL. Ninety six teams competed and our girls, coached by Amity Messick and Kendall Staver placed sixth in their division.

“I’m so proud of our girls! They worked so hard to qualify and compete at the National level and really cheered their hearts out. They did an amazing job!” Coach Messick.

American Youth Football and Cheer is the world’s largest football family with membership of 17,800 teams in 50 states.
